

Save the date! On May 10, from 5-8, we will be holding our annual Empty Bowls and celebration of the Arts night! Come join us for a great evening!

Purchase a handcrafted bowl for $10 ($8 for seniors) and attend a magical evening of soup, bread, desserts, the arts and love! Once you have your bowl, you can view student artwork that is displayed, a book fair in the library, a vendor fair through the halls and you will be treated to music by the jazz band, along with singing by the WJ choir, and Mr Ramage and his crew on guitars.

All proceeds from the Empty Bowls night are split equally between our local food bank and Restavec Freedom Alliance (a non-profit organization helping former child slaves in Haiti).

The Mother's' Day Vendor Fair is a great opportunity to buy Mother's Day gifts from over 20 vendors such as; LuLaRoe, Jewelry, 31 Bags, Tastefully Simple, Pampered Chef, Wine Chimes & cork crafts, soaps, Jafra, Dream catchers, Wild Carrot cordage, and more....Vendor fair proceeds benefit WJ Art Supplies.

We are looking for soup and dessert donations if you are interested in helping. All soups must be in a crockpot - you will get it back if your name is on it! Please contact Elise Graber egraber@colchesterct.org, or Christine Taylor ctayl31@colchesterct.org if you are interested in helping! We hope to see you there!
